Vicar's day off this week: Thursday 14th June

Welcome to All Saints!

Refreshments are served in the hall after the 9.30am service every week. Please join us to have a chat, meet new friends and catch up with current ones.

Children are welcome in Sunday School or there are quiet activities at the back of church for them to enjoy.

If you are a newcomer please have a word with the Clergy, Churchwardens or Sidespeople.

We look forward to meeting you.

Mark 3: 20 - end

Then Jesus went home; and the crowd came together again, so that they could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, "He has gone out of his mind."

And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons."

And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered.

"Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin" — for they had said, "He has an unclean spirit."

Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him.

A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, "Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you."

And he replied, "Who are my mother and my brothers?"

And looking at those who sat around him, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Mothers' Union wave of Prayer

A short service to pray for our linked branches in Bukavu in the Democratic Republic of Congo, Nyahururu in Kenya, Gboko in Nigeria, Papua New Guinea and the New Guinea Islands. Our time to take part is 11am on Saturday 16th June. There will be a service in the old part of church at this time. If you cannot attend please pray at home, the service is written in the centre pages of the Contact magazine or there are some copies on our notice board at the back of church. We will also repeat the service in our meeting on Tuesday 19th June, 7.30pm in the Heath Room, followed by refreshments and one of Moya's quizzes.

Encounters With Jesus

During the summer months at our All Age & Parish Communion 9.30am services we will be exploring a number of different stories from the gospels & seeing how Jesus changed the lives of men, women & children. As we do, we'll be asking the question, how can Jesus change our lives today? Each week we'll post the sermon on our website www.allsaintsdenmead.org.uk

Wednesday 27 June from 6pm -

Men's Group BBQ in Mike and Gill Barge's garden (Fairview, School Lane, PO7 6LY). Men plus partners welcome! Cost is £5 per person to cover all food and drink (beer, wine and soft drinks available). If you would like to come please sign the list at the back of church or email denmeadbarges@aol.com. In the event of bad weather the BBQ will be postponed. The Men's Group is for any man in the All Saints congregation and you are most welcome to attend any event that appeals to you... look out for further notices.

Sunday 1 July after the 9.30am service - CHURCH SUMMER PICNIC & GAMES! All are welcome to bring a picnic and stay after the service, or come along and join us from about 11am onwards for games followed by picnicking together - all outside if the weather is fine, or smaller games and picnics in the Hall if wet! Bring rugs if you like, or chairs and tables can be provided.
