Dear Friends,

We have enjoyed some good weather so far this summer and look forward hopefully to more of this now that schools and colleges have finished for their long holiday, families can have some fun time together, either at home or away, and most of us can enjoy spending more time outside.

At All Saints' Church this month we shall be welcoming those children aged four to eleven who have pre-registered for our four-day Holiday Club. Our theme is 'Explorers', and through games, bible stories, craft, sport and drama, in their different age groups, the children will solve puzzles and follow clues to find out who Jesus is and to learn about God's love for each one of us. Please pick up a prayer diary from the display shelves in church and use it every day to support the children and the adult volunteer helpers who will be attending, praying for fun and friendship, and that seeds of faith will be sown and grown. Perhaps consider volunteering yourself next year?

It is not only schools which take a break throughout August; many classes, clubs and other regular groups and sessions will not be meeting again until September; and this leaves a lot of people with gaps in their routines which they may be wondering how to fill. But this does give us all an opportunity to try something different for a while, which can be both refreshing and stimulating. Winchester City, Havant Borough and Hampshire County Councils, either directly or through partnerships, are offering a variety of summer sport and leisure activities; check out their websites for more details. Or maybe you can get together with family, friends and neighbours to arrange your own activities? Why not try discovering something new, or learning a new skill?

Why not try discovering something new, or learning a new skill?

If you enjoy walking, there are miles of footpaths crossing both urban and rural landscapes in our area, many of which have been described in the pages of The Parish Chronicle; look at back-copies on our website for ideas. We are also within reach, both by car and by bus, of the coast, with its beaches and its bird-watching opportunities, and of several forest parks and country parks, many of which have accessible paths for the less mobile of us.

Alternatively, and particularly if the weather feels too warm for walking, if you or someone you know has a garden in which you can sit, make space in your day simply to relax and to bathe yourself in the beauty of God's glorious creation. Perhaps read a book; one which you may have been too busy to read until now! If you haven't already started, you can also join this year's Big Butterfly Count, which continues until 10 August; see www.butterfly-conservation.org for details. As well as private gardens, there are several accessible green areas around the village which serve a similar purpose, including the church garden.

You may be visiting family or friends this month, so think about the route you will take. My wife and I make regular trips to visit relatives and to spend time in Northumberland and Durham. These days, neither of us finds driving very comfortable and we try to avoid the motorways, on which everyone seems to value only speed and to accept the monotony of the journey as a price worth paying for reducing travelling time. Rather, we prefer to take the old roads, which offer more frequent, more interesting, and more enjoyable places to stop along the way. We have discovered wonderful country parks, wildlife and nature reserves, sites of industrial heritage, and buildings of fascinating architecture, which previously we would have driven past without ever knowing that they were there.

...take time to respect, to enjoy, and to share with others what God and God-given human creativity have provided for us

So, my advice is to slow down this August; take time to respect, to enjoy, and to share with others what God and God-given human creativity have provided for us. One of the authors of the bible writes, "Desire without knowledge is not good, and one who moves too hurriedly misses the way." (Proverbs 19:2 NRSV). The context of this verse from Hebrew scripture is that it is part of a list of ways in which the wise guided their pupils and parents guided their children. In that culture great importance was placed on the character of 'Wisdom', a personification of a practical, God-centred and God-reflecting way of living, much of which was later endorsed by Jesus' teaching. Amongst Wisdom's many core values were to see life as a journey, to respect one's own life and health and that of others, to listen to and to follow informed instruction, and to make proper use of time along the way. That makes sense to me.

With love in Christ,

Peter Mitchell, Licensed Lay Minister (Reader), All Saints' Church.

W.I. Belles learn about candles

This month the W.I. Belles were entertained by Becky, the founder of Hampshire Wick, who spoke passionately about how her candle making business started and her plans for the future. A number of the ladies purchased gorgeous smelling candles and wax melts during the tea break.

There will be no meeting in August but the group will be back on 3rd September ready for another fun-filled evening with the group's ethos being Fun, Friendship, Learning and Laughter.

Ladies are invited to join the monthly meeting on the first Wednesday of the month (except for August) at 7:30pm in the Denmead War Memorial Hall. Visitors are welcome to attend for £4. Each month there is an interesting speaker or activity, catering for a variety of tastes. Hot drinks and cake are provided for a charity donation and there's also a raffle.

A number of sub-groups are available including book club, walking group, craft club, gardening club, supper party and house party and ad-hoc trips organised based on members' interests.

Head Gardener of Kingston Lacy addresses Horticultural Society

The Horticultural Society gave a warm welcome to Andrew Hunt recently, who has been employed by the National Trust as Head Gardener of Kingston Lacy for 18 years, having undertaken an apprenticeship and then worked his way up at the Grade I listed house and Grade II listed garden. Both were bequeathed to the National Trust in the early 1980s by the Bankes family, together with Corfe Castle, Isle of Purbeck and Studland.

Andrew explained that the current renovations to toilets, car parks and Welcome Centre is due to the large increase in visitor numbers. The previous infrastructure had been designed to cater for 70,000 guests but this year numbers will be nearing 500,000, 20,000 of these visit to see the snowdrops alone, with the gardens attracting more visitors than the house.

During lockdown only Andrew and the assistant Head Gardener were allowed on site on alternate days and could only cut the grass. During this time they watched areas become overgrown causing insect and bird life to increase. As a result, when the team returned, it was decided to replace the formal bedding with wildflowers. One of these areas is the "sunk garden", not to be confused with a sunken garden!

In front of the house the Parterre borders and yew topiary had become misshapen. Funds were raised and permission granted by English Heritage for these borders to be dug out, lined with metal edging - ensuring the shape is retained for years to come - and replanted. Yew cuttings were taken, propagated and grown on. The planting in the beds mirrors some of the colours, furniture shapes and wallpaper patterns found in the rooms which overlook these beds. This planting has had a big environmental and labour impact, by saving the daily watering.

The Japanese garden designed by Henrietta Bankes is filled with Acers, cherry blossom and bamboo. Tatton Park has the only other Japanese garden within the National Trust ownership.

Snowdrops play a big part at Kingston Lacy and each year the team add new speciality bulbs. However, due to theft, these are planted within pots which are sunk into the ground then covered with wire and topsoil. Snowdrop numbers are reducing due to the bulbs not getting sufficient nourishment and moisture in the hot, dry Augusts and so drying out.

The next project is the Walled Garden, so another visit will be on the cards soon!

The flower of the month was won by Alan Stuart with a very red Dahlia.

With the Village show fast approaching on 16th August, the show schedule can be found in Parkers, the community centre or at <https://www.hugofox.com/community/denmead-horticultural-society-19787/home>

The next meeting is on 2nd September in All Saints Church Hall, follow on Facebook for details about the speaker. Guests are welcome (£2.00), refreshments are served and donations welcome.

Afternoon W.I. is Deserted

The July meeting of the Afternoon W.I. featured a visit by Alan Key, a member of the choir who entertained the group last December. Alan gave a most interesting illustrated talk about a trip he and his wife took across the Namibian Desert.

The desert is the largest in the world with sand dunes miles high. As well as their train journey across the desert, they also enjoyed an aerial trip over the area which stretches as far as the sea at the Skeleton Coast and is dotted with small settlements.

The group continues to receive good support for its £1 Table which helps with running costs so members can enjoy interesting professional speakers. Members also continue to enjoy a monthly lunch date at Barnards, usually on the second Tuesday.

There is no meeting in August, the next will be on Wednesday 3rd September and will be a Members' Afternoon with a Beetle Drive – always popular - as well as a quiz.

Ladies are invited to meetings on the first Wednesday of the month from 2 - 4pm at All Saints Church which is central to the village with easy parking. Visitors are most welcome. It's an informal group that enjoys a chat over tea and a biscuit after the speaker. Visitors would be most welcome to see if the group is their "cup of tea". If you're new to the village or recently retired and would like to make new friends the W.I. would welcome you. Talks cover a variety of subjects – some serious and others amusing – so all tastes are catered for.

If you're unable to attend an afternoon meeting the Evening Institute would welcome you to their meetings at 7.30pm on the third Wednesday.

Joan Downing

Evening W.I. Man the Lifeboats

In June the Evening W.I. welcomed Caroline Tilley who gave an informative talk on the RNLI. Of the 238 UK lifeboat stations most are manned by volunteers and all are funded by donations; surprisingly Tower Station on the Thames is the busiest. She finished with an account of Grace Darling and her father's heroic rescue of shipwrecked passengers off the Farne Islands.

The group will be having a stall at the Horticultural Show with books, jigsaw puzzles and plants to purchase as well as the 100 square raffle with the prize of a hamper.

This month's meeting is a social evening where the group will again be playing New Age Kurling, followed by an American supper.

Ladies who would like see what the W.I. is all about would receive a warm welcome. Visitors can attend up to three meetings free of charge prior to joining on the third Wednesday of each month at 7.30pm at Denmead Memorial Hall.

Denmead Walks

WALK DETAILS

Length: 7.3km/4.6 miles

Duration: 1h 50m

Walk Grade: MODERATE 3/5

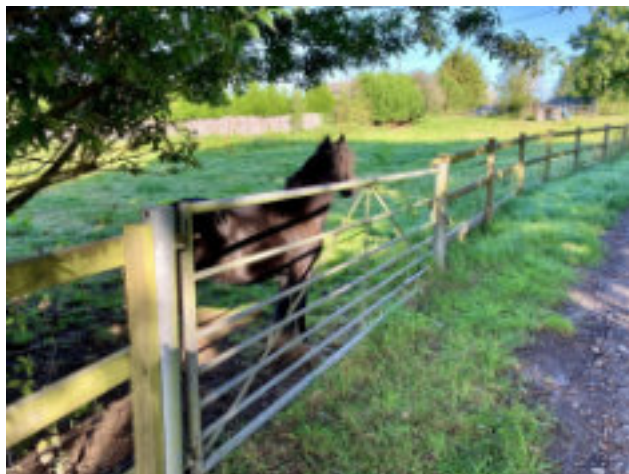

Stiles: 8

This is an easy walk on generally flat terrain so no hills. It starts from the Harvest Home pub heading up Bunkers Hill before branching west through Creech Woods. On emerging onto Apless Lane a right turn leads to the Chairmakers pub then briefly along Ervills Road before picking up the Alan King footpath. The second leg of the route is along Bent Lane then across several horse paddocks with Bronze Age burial mounds on one side before heading back to Denmead via School Lane.

Dog owners please note that not all the stiles are dog friendly and the route goes through horse paddocks.

From the Harvest Home turn R from the pub CP heading across the roundabout toward Creech Woods. At the 40mph sign take great care when crossing the road onto a narrow footpath and after a few twists bear R when a wider path is reached. This latter track almost immediately merges with the wide path heading west as it divides the woodland.

Horse paddock alongside the Alan King Way footpath

2.21km/1.35miles. Turn R on reaching Apless Lane and walk the 450m to the road junction in front of the Chairmakers pub. Take great care crossing the road before bearing R along Ervills Road toward Worlds End/ Hambledon. About 150m further on turn L on the Alan King Way FP passing between two farms after which a stile leads onto a narrow, enclosed stretch of the path.

At the end of this path with another stile in front, turn R and continue along another straight section eventually doing a dogleg before climbing over a third stile that leads into woodland. After negotiating a ditch walk straight ahead and remain in the same direction at a junction further on which leads to Bent Lane.

4km/ 2.5miles. Turn R on reaching Bent Lane and after a further 400m, when coming out of a double bend in the road, go over a stile on the RHS. Be warned there are usually horses grazing in one or more of the paddocks ahead.

Walk straight across each paddock looking for the stile in the fence of the next boundary. It is necessary to cross a further four stiles and a short wooden bridge before getting back to Fareham Road. Look out for Bronze Age burial mounds on the LHS when partway across the fields on this section of the route.

4.9km/ 3.06miles. Shortly after crossing the bridge take care after crossing a stile onto Fareham Road. Turn R and walk about 100m keeping close into the hedge on the RHS of the road. Cross into Broad Lane and walk uphill soon coming to a four-way junction. Go straight across into School Lane and continue uphill.

5.66km/3.5miles. At the top of the hill pass The Fox & Hounds pub and continue in the same direction to the end of School Lane.

6.5km/ 4.06miles. On reaching the main road bear R and after about 200m bear R into Masons Walk which leads to Harvest Road. It is necessary to go L on reaching Harvest Road so walk along to the end of the road then go R; the pub is a short distance away on the RHS.

Long straight footpath before woodland leading to Bent Lane

Jane Austen's 250th anniversary

To be celebrated at West Meon Music Festival

The West Meon Music Festival is marking the 250th anniversary of the birth of Jane Austen this year with a special gala concert featuring renowned tenor James Gilchrist, and is delighted to be premiering a new work commissioned from Peter Salem, known for his extensive output of TV, film and theatre music (among them the ever popular "Call the Midwife" theme). Jane Austen's Playlist on Sunday 14th September at 3.30pm also features some of Jane's favourite music and readings from her letters selected by Lizzie Dunford, curator of Jane Austen's House in Chawton.

The concert forms a spectacular finale to the four-day festival, which starts on Thursday 11th September. Most concerts are held in St John's church in West Meon but there will also be a harpsichord recital in Warnford's lovely Church of Our Lady and a morning concert of string quartets at East Meon's All Saints. Other highlights include a recital by young prize-winning pianist Clara Isabella Siegle, who made her orchestral début at the age of nine, and is gaining worldwide renown as a solo artist.

Full details of all eight festival concerts can be found at www.westmeonmusic.co.uk. Tickets, with prices from £15 to £27 are available via the festival website; all tickets for under-16s are priced at £1 and there are substantial discounts for full-time students.

Hampshire County Council

Local Government Reform

Local Government Reorganisation (LGR) sees the Government requiring all two-tier councils in the country to be replaced by single-tier unitary authorities to deliver all services in their area. Under the Government's plans, the 15 councils currently covering Hampshire and the Solent area, would cease to exist by 2028 (Hampshire County Council, 11 district/borough councils, Southampton and Portsmouth unitary councils and Isle of Wight Council), and instead be replaced by fewer unitary councils.

HCC is working on plans to ensure that any new councils created in Hampshire and the Solent prioritise the best interests of residents and a financially strong future by taking into account the large-scale services the Council delivers. HCC provides by value the vast majority of council services people receive across Hampshire and the Solent. They are vital to those people who need them most, so the Council want to ensure they remain high quality, resilient and financially sustainable through strong unitary councils.

Since submitting initial proposals to Government this Spring HCC, jointly with local authority partners, have been carefully studying the data, weighing up the pros and cons of various potential options, and gathering views from residents and those who keep public services moving – the Police, Fire Service, NHS, headteachers and others across local government, as well as our own Authority, to gain feedback on what LGR needs to deliver. This has helped to inform the shortlist of four options:

Option 1

- North: Basingstoke and Deane, East Hampshire, Hart, New Forest, Rushmoor, Test Valley, Winchester
- South: Eastleigh, Fareham, Gosport, Havant, Portsmouth, Southampton
- Isle of Wight

Option 2

- North: Basingstoke and Deane, East Hampshire, Hart, Rushmoor, Test Valley, Winchester
- South-West: Eastleigh, New Forest, Southampton
- South-East: Fareham, Gosport, Havant, Portsmouth
- Isle of Wight

Option 3

- North: Basingstoke and Deane, East Hampshire, Hart, Rushmoor, Winchester
- South-West: Eastleigh, New Forest, Southampton, Test Valley
- South-East: Fareham, Gosport, Havant, Portsmouth
- Isle of Wight

Option 4

- North-East: Basingstoke and Deane, Hart, Rushmoor
- Central: Test Valley, Winchester, East Hampshire
- South-West: Eastleigh, New Forest, Southampton
- South-East: Fareham, Gosport, Havant, Portsmouth
- Isle of Wight

HCC is now in a position to consider which best meets central Government criteria. Once this has been completed, it will propose a preferred option to be considered by councillors. If this single option is then agreed by the Council and Cabinet, the Council will ask for feedback from residents and stakeholders this summer. Your views will help HCC shape its final design which will be submitted to Government this autumn, alongside other options presented by its partners. Government will consider the proposals and carry out a formal public consultation on its agreed option next year.

More Special Needs School Places

More children with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) in Gosport and the New Forest will access the right support closer to home, thanks to the addition of new special needs places in two local schools.

- A new Resourced Provision at Newtown Church of England Voluntary Controlled Primary School, Gosport for 10 pupils aged four to 11 with Autism Spectrum Condition, to open in phases from September 2025. A Resourced Provision is a specialist environment for children with SEND within a mainstream school.
- The expansion of an existing Resourced Provision at Ashley Infant School, New Milton by eight places, providing 15 places in total for pupils with Autism Spectrum Condition and 17 places for pupils with Speech, Language and Communication needs, from September 2025 for children aged four to seven.

This follows two formal statutory consultations which were carried out on the proposals earlier this year.

Adult Social Care Support

If you need support

- with mental health conditions
- or those with learning disabilities and for autistic people
- for those with vision impairment or hearing loss
- for adults over 65 years

Help with the Cost of Living

The ongoing struggle with the cost of living poses a challenge for many residents who are having to make difficult choices regarding their household finances. Help is available including warm spaces in libraries, hot school meals and expert advice on reducing heating bills. HCC encourages everyone in Hampshire to take full advantage of these resources which cover

- Food and essentials
- Fuel and energy
- Money and debt
- Staying well and resilient

Waterlooville Probus Club

Probus welcomes retired or semi-retired professional men and women who live in Denmead and surrounding areas.

Please note, meetings will be held at The Hampshire Hog, Clanfield.

On TUESDAY 12th AUGUST 2025, David Bickerton will talk about Operation Husky, the invasion of Sicily. General Patton commanded the US Seventh Army and General Montgomery the British army. Despite the terrain favouring the defenders, the campaign took just 39 days although the Allies failed to prevent the Axis evacuation across the Messina Strait. The talk also includes an account of Operation Mincemeat.

The following month, on Tuesday 9th September 2025, Carol Frampton, an official guide at the museum, will give a talk about the life of Henry VIII's favourite warship – from the time of her sinking in 1545 to the present day. It is a fascinating story and, how finding her in 1971 has given us an amazing insight into aspects of Tudor history, which we may never have fully known or appreciated.

The meal, Speaker and room costs total £23. Please note, the meal must be ordered one week in advance, so if you would like to come along to find out more about Probus, or want to join the Club, please contact our Membership Secretary, Linda Marland, email - probus@lindamarland.com

The Waterlooville Probus Club meet on the second Tuesday of every month at the Hampshire Hog, Clanfield (plenty of free car parking space).

There is a two-course meal, followed by tea/coffee and a Speaker. Arrive 12 noon for 12.30 pm sit down lunch.

Dress: Men - Jackets and ties, women - equivalent.

In addition to our regular lunch with Speaker meetings, we also try to arrange occasional day trips, eg a visit to Westminster Palace; a river cruise with afternoon tea; visit to a gin distillery, a behind the scenes theatre visit, when family and friends are welcome. These trips are optional.

More information about Probus Waterlooville is shown on our website at <https://probusclub.net/waterlooville/>
